

Identifying Your Reactive Cycle

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. Describe a recent conflict or negative situation—something that really “pushed your emotional buttons,” or that really hurt or upset you.

2. What were the “buttons” that got pushed during the conflict? Another way to look at it is: How did what happened during the conflict make you feel about yourself? What did the conflict say about you or the message that it sent to you? For example, as a result of the above conflict, I felt _____ or feared _____ or I thought _____ would happen?

Check all that apply first, then go back and “circle” the top five buttons.
